emperance Peoples Excited Over the Stand Taken by Them. Sioux Falis, S. D., Jan. 2.-Considerable excitement prevails among the temperance people over the stand taken by the majority of the saloon-keepers. All saloon licenses expired with the year. With one or two exceptions, however, all the places were open yes-terday as usual. The impression pre-vails among the liquor dealers that they will be permitted to continue in busi-ness until the law to be passed by the coming Legislature for enforcing prohibitory amendment goes into effect.
There is a law for prosecuting saloon-keepers without a license still in force, and the saloon-keepers are somewhat adverse to controversy in business and fear prosecution from the temperance peonle.

Will Run Wide Oper MITCHELL, S. D., Jan. 2.—The leading saloon keepers express themselves as de-termined to keep open regardless of the prohibitory clause in the constitution. They say that the opinions of able lawyers have been given them to the effect that their license expired with the year 1889, no penalties are attached to their continued selling, nor will be until there are legislative ensetments enforcing the prohibitory clause. Until such enact-ments are passed, and go into effect, they propose to run wide open.

Why Her Wedding was Postpo CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 2 .- As Miss Maggie Layman was dressing for her wed ling at Brandon, Ohio, last night, she picked up a revolver, and was about to place it in her dresser drawer, when the weapon was discharged. The ball on treed her thigh, producing a dangerous wound. The wedding was postponed.

of returning to the old system of deal-ing and abolishing the inture system was elected. The contest was one of the most spirited ever held by the exchange.

DUSE ESSBRAND The Wheeling Instalment Co. BALLINGE SHOPPERS-SHOPPERS-SHOPPERS Lady Shoppers—fourteen days hence and the holiday shopping season—with its attending worry and care—will be ended. The time is short—it's true—yet there is a great deal to be done. There are many friends to think about—and what shall I give to him or her?—is the question that now agitates every mind. Of course this is natural—it is reasonable—and what is more—it is a kind consideration for the fortunate recipient. But it is nevertheless a difficult question to answer unaided—and as we believe that the old adage—"Two HEADS ARE BETTER THAN ONE"—is applicable here—we therefore presume to assist the giver in answering it.

Wheeling Instalment Co.
